

MND Scotland exists to help people affected by motor neurone disease in Scotland by providing care, information and funding research. The Scottish MND community comprises those living with the disease - along with their families, carers and the health and social care professionals supporting them.

We have a comprehensive list of factsheets available to download from our website or to be posted out as paper copies if you do not have internet access. These factsheets cover a wide range of topics of interest to those with MND, their families and carers. See overleaf for the current list.

Our Information Officer/Librarian is happy to deal with any additional general queries you may have. Your MND Clinical Specialist will also be happy to follow up any questions specific to the condition. The service is free for people with MND, their families and carers. Donations are welcomed from health and social care professionals.

The MND Library & Information Service

Enquiries – enquiries on any aspect of living with motor neurone disease are welcomed by email, telephone, post or social media eg Facebook.

Visit - a visit to the library will allow you to make the best use of our service so please make an appointment. The premises have disabled access.
